This report is for reflection, self-exploration and entertainment. It describes tendencies drawn from astrological and numerological tradition applied to real calculations of your birth details. They are never certainties, and never a substitute for professional advice. Your birth data is used only to generate this report.

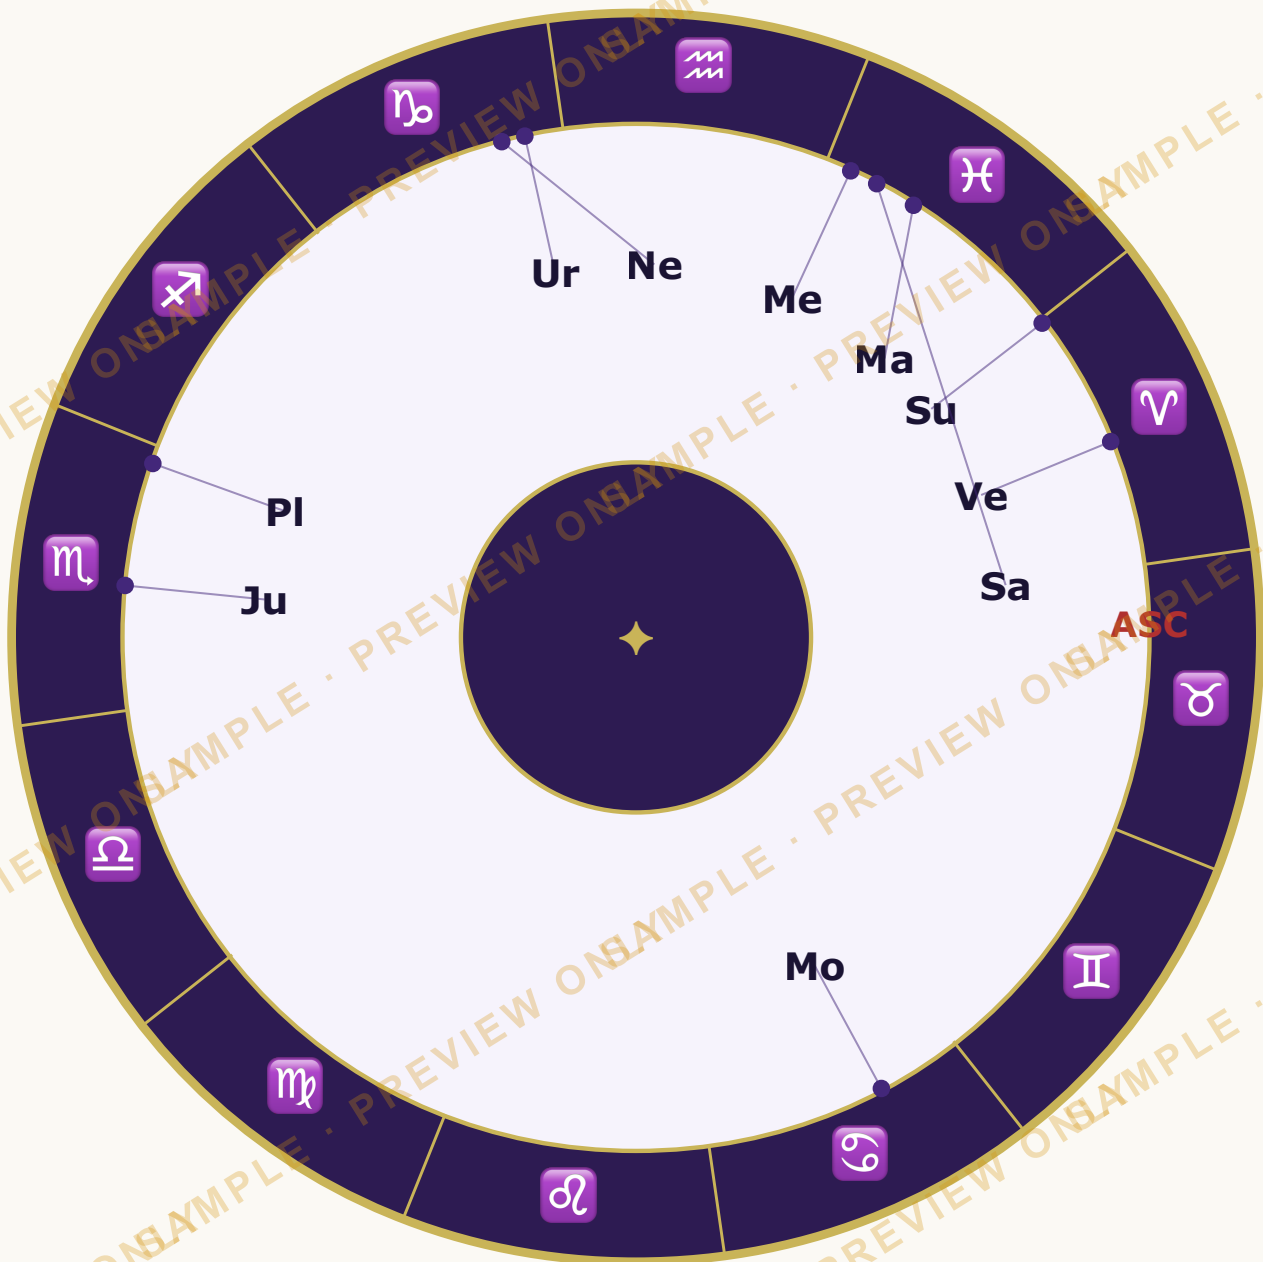

01 How to Read This Report

You don't need to know any astrology to read this report. A birth chart is a snapshot of the sky at the moment and place you were born: which zodiac sign each planet occupied, and which part of the sky (called a 'house') it sat in from your birthplace's point of view. Astrologers read planets as functions (how you love, think, act), signs as styles (how that function expresses itself), and houses as arenas (where in life it plays out). Everything that follows was calculated individually from your birth details, so this is your own sky rather than a generic horoscope.

03 Your Western Birth Chart

Your Western chart wheel: planets in the tropical zodiac, Ascendant marked

Your Rising Sign: Taurus

With Taurus rising, you come across as calm, solid, and unhurried. People relax around you before you've said much. The first impression is reliability, and it's usually accurate. Your instinctive approach to anything new is to slow it down and check it's real. That patience is a real advantage; just notice when it becomes a polite way of refusing to start.
